Safeguarding Children: Recognition & Response in Child Protection

Thursday 19th November 2020
STRIVE Academic Centre
The James Cook University Hospital
Marton Road
Middlesbrough, TS4 3BW

DELEGATE FEE: £140 per delegate

ACCREDITATION: ALSG (SGC LEVEL 3)

OVERVIEW
This nationally recognised course enables you to recognise signs and symptoms of the possible range of abuse and or neglect in children of all ages. Respond competently and confidently, knowing what knowledge and skills are needed to recognise child abuse. Know how to make a referral to the relevant agency or professional group and to find out the outcome of a referral. Understand the importance of follow-up to the health and developmental outcome for the child.

ELIGIBILITY
The course has been developed for doctors in training, mainly in paediatrics, emergency medicine and general practice.

COURSE INFORMATION
The course includes online modular education through the ALSG Virtual Learning Environment and a one day face-to-face course. The pre-course preparation is expected to take 8 hours. The face-to-face course runs from 08.00 – 17.30.

A series of lectures, small group workshops, discussions and role plays covers the following areas:

- Introduction and background
- Outcomes
- What did you learn?
- Where do you go from here?
- Recognising child abuse and neglect
- How do you feel?
- Working together
- Role plays: what do you do including communication
